10 o'clock A. M. on yesterday (Sunday) and this morning. J. H. Blackley's store, at Pa nola, was robbed of about seventy-five dol lars in specie and notes. A larger amount of checks and drafts was in the tills from which the money was taken, but they were not wanted. No goods were taken. Patent tills are used, and care was taken not to ring the bells. Under one till is a drawer, which was taken out and the till pressed down with a chisel, so as to be removed and not give an alarm. An entrance into the store was made by boring and removing enough of the floor to make a hole about sixteen by twenty inches. The sills and sleepers are eight or nine inches from the ground. The thief, after going under the ring the progress on both sides to the rulings house, removed some of the earth to make room to work, and to lessen the space between the sleepers and the ground to pre-H.

BURKEVILLE, May 2, 1879. Mrs. H. S. Wootton :

About the first of February last I was a great sufferer from dryness of mouth and throat and nurning thirst. I tried the water from different springs and wells in my neighborhood without relief, and all turned sour in the stomach. I procured some of your "LUNENBURG LITHIA WATER," and two or three draughts in quick succession allayed all thirst and removed the dryness and made me very comfortable. My daughter was similarly affected ould not find any relief from burning thirst, nau-
